

Polls Designer

Crowdsource instant decisions and spark casual engagement without the friction of bouncing between scattered tools and channels. Polls Designer brings quick input and lightweight engagement into one place — turning feedback into faster decisions.

Hear from the right people, fast

Draft polls in seconds with AI, then capture one-click responses in the feed or live events, precisely targeted with Audience-based Access Control.

Make live events interactive

Turn town halls into interactive experiences with real-time QR voting and on-screen results.

Reduce tool sprawl and noise

Replace shadow apps with a native solution that keeps engagement secure, on-brand, and centrally managed.
