Unite your workforce on a single platform with integrated recognition and rewards to drive employee engagement, performance, and culture alignment.

Integrate recognition into daily workflows

Embed employee rewards and recognition within your digital HQ to align employee behaviors with organizational values.

Streamline the user experience

Simpplr's intuitive, multi-experience platform simplifies program management, making administration easy and redemption effortless.

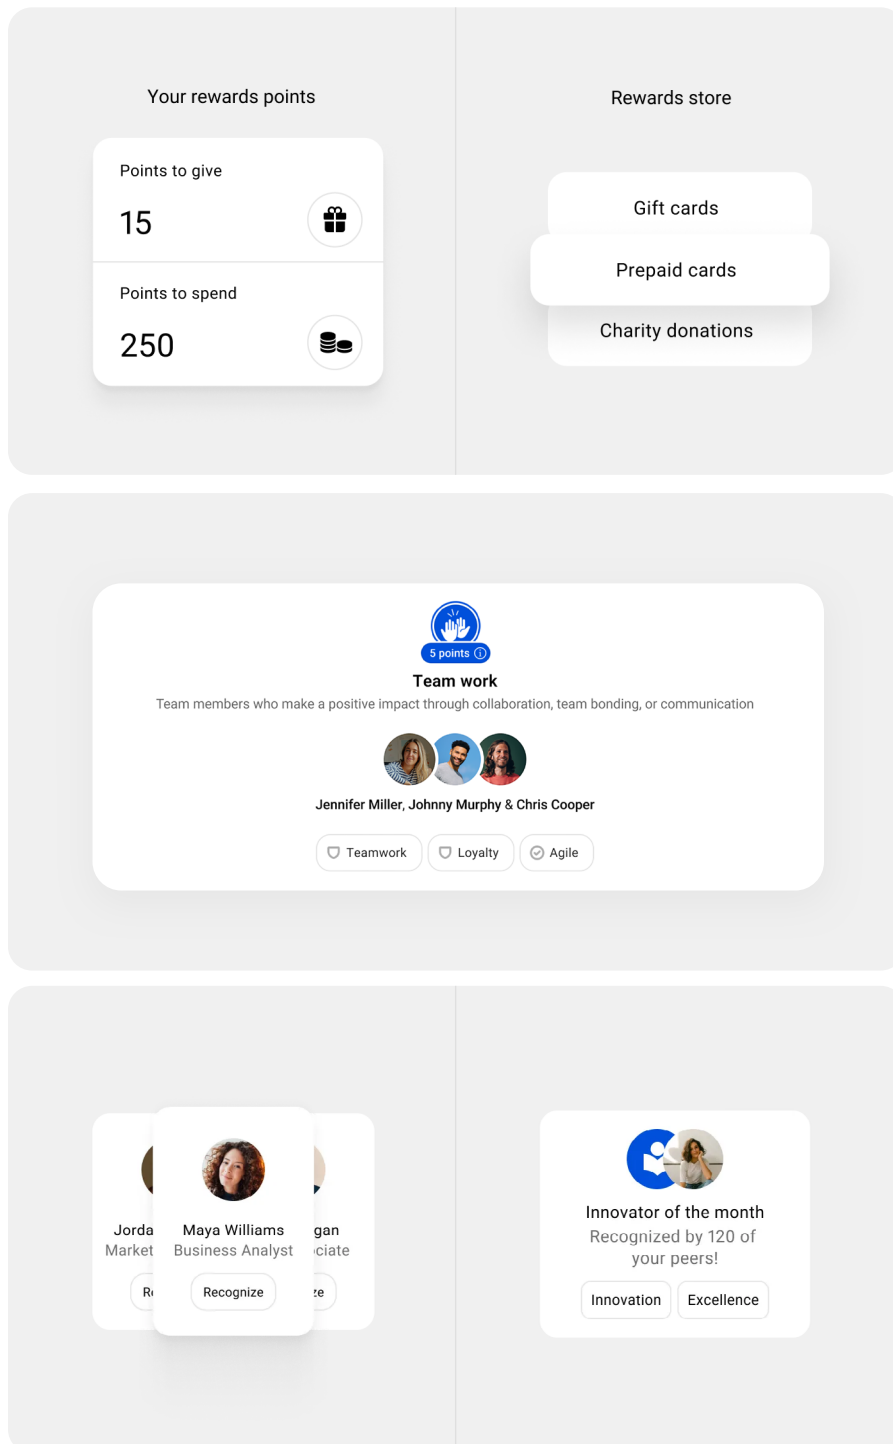

Gain real-time insights

Unlock deeper insights by combining recognition metrics with AI-powered analytics on employee behavior and engagement within the intranet.

Drive employee engagement, performance, and culture alignment

Centralized hub

Easily access and manage all aspects of recognition in one platform, enhancing engagement and visibility across the organization.

Personalized recognition and rewards

Add a personal touch to every recognition with customized messages and tailored awards to deepen connections.

Amplify visibility

Empower employees to celebrate recognitions directly from their news feeds, increasing engagement and fostering a culture of shared success.

Streamline redemption

Offer diverse and flexible rewards that employees can redeem directly through the intranet, eliminating the need to log into external platforms.

Supports global organizations

Simplify redemptions with seamless currency conversions, removing the complexity of managing multiple currencies.

Seamlessly integrated Recognition and Rewards

Peer-to-peer recognition

Empower employees to recognize each other, fostering positivity, community, and organizational values.

Custom recognition

Design awards and badges that reflect company values, reinforcing and promoting a strong employer culture.

Multichannel experience

Engage employees across different channels such as email and Slack, ensuring seamless integration into daily workflows.

Built-in approval workflows

Encourage manager participation with efficient approval processes that uphold compliance and ensure consistency.

Budget management

Easily allocate and manage program budgets using intuitive controls built into the platform.

Rewards store

Configure rewards with flexible options, such as gift cards and charity donations, to better align with employee preferences.

Awards for every occasion

Automate service milestone rewards, establish departmental awards, and promote consistent recognition with functional and spot awards.

Manager dashboard

Equip managers with analytics and tools to track, promote, and amplify team performance and recognition.

Analytics and insights
